A Successful Drug Store Service

Our aim is to carry our drug store service to a successful conclusion.

From the taking of your order to its delivery there is not one item overlooked that will help to give you greater service, comfort and convenience. We are pleased to term this successful drug store service of ours a cooperative service. It helps us because it increases our patrons and makes them permanent customers. It helps you because it relieves you of worry and detail. If you have not already tried our service we would be pleased to have you do so.

Phone us if you like, and you will receive your order promptly.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A. B. Dauber has gone to Santa Fe where he will remain for some time.

Hotpoint week is now being observed at the Electric Light Co.'s office.

A ball game is promised for Sunday afternoon—El Paso vs. Tucumcari.

Mrs. J. T. Wofford has returned home from an extended visit in the East.

Miss Arla Radley of Paw Paw, Ill., is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. W. A. Savage.

C. H. Meeker, E. E. Manney, and James Crowley were business visitors at Grady Tuesday.

Mesdames Beeth and Cady were hostesses to a number of ladies last Thursday afternoon.

The dance at the Vorenberg was well attended last night and the usual good time was enjoyed.

C. E. Nicholson has accepted the job of auditing the city's books, and starts to work Monday night.

Mrs. J. W. Evans, of Trinidad, was so far recovered as to be able to leave the Tucumcari Hospital Thursday.

W. D. Gallagher, of New Jersey, is visiting C. E. Nicholson, and will probably remain here for several months.

Mrs. Lee G. Pearson most graciously entertained the Embroidery Club last Friday afternoon at her home on South First street.

Mr. Rex, who has been staying with his daughter, Mrs. Clough, left Monday for his home in northeast Missouri.

The wheat crops on the Plains are thriving since the recent rains, making that country an undulating ocean of green.

PERCHERON STALLION. The dapple grey percheron stallion, George, weight 1730 pounds will make the season at Wayne's Livestock Stable, Tucumcari, N. M.

The Moose gave a social and dance at their hall last Friday evening, and those who attended report a most delightful time.

G. C. Culbertson, of Valley Head, Ala., arrived Sunday morning and is stopping with his friend, C. E. Nicholson.

H. W. Donohoo, of Fresno, Calif., is visiting his brother, R. P., this week. He is a pharmacist and will probably locate here.

Paul Kingsbury, a merchant from Mosquero, was in Tucumcari Monday. He was enroute home from Clayton and Logan, where he had been on business.

The local alumni gave a banquet to the graduating class of 1914. There were fourteen present, and the evening was one of pleasure.

Rev. P. B. Henderlite in speaking of "From the Manger to the Cross" makes the following statement: "It makes the whole life of our Lord stand out very real. It cannot but do good for anyone to see it. It is splendid."

The delegation which went to Amarillo last Thursday returned with all kinds of reports as to the best route and how long it takes to make the trip.

The "mum" special will start from the residence of M. H. Koch sometime this evening. Not knowing exactly what this is, we will trust to providence that the special will be a quiet affair.

Charles Adair, the little daughter of C. T. Adair, who has been critically ill with pneumonia, is improving and hopes are ascertained now for her immediate recovery.

The nice rain this morning has greatly added to the prospects for a good crop this season. Flattering reports are coming from every direction. Let it rain!

Prof. J. S. Hofer was called to Iowa the first of this week on account of the death of a sister. We did not learn the particulars as to her death, but Mr. Hofer left Sunday to attend the funeral.

Felipe Sanchez y Baca has moved his family to Tucumcari from Santa Rosa. We welcome this estimable family to our city and hope their stay will be a pleasant one.

Mrs. Jewel was brought to the Tucumcari Hospital in a critical condition from a perforated appendix. An immediate operation was performed Tuesday evening.

Carl Billstone, who has been working at the American Furniture Co., has resigned his position here and left for Las Vegas where he has accepted a similar position in a furniture store.

Mrs. Frank Ward went to Mineral Wells, Texas, the first of the week. She will be gone several weeks and hopes to be greatly improved in health during her stay.

"Economical S. O. B." We will sell a limited number of our OIL BURNERS, and take orders for later delivery. Those who want an ideal and a safe fuel for this summer will place their orders at once.

Haas, Hunter & Co. Dad Wallace passed his 75th birthday Saturday and was as happy as a boy. He is still able to be at work, and if you have any kind of a job you wish done, just call on Dad and he will appreciate it.

J. C. Chambers and R. A. Miller, of the Montoya neighborhood, were here Monday on business and made the News office a pleasant call. They report farm work under good headway, and prospects fine.

The Misses Currie, milliners, have an attractive ad. on another page which states that they intend to close out their business and will cut prices low enough to sell everything by the first of June. Don't miss reading what they have to say.

Mrs. Henry W. Griffin and her daughter, Miss Minnie, left Monday morning for Lockhart, Texas, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Griffin will remain here for a month or more before joining his family.

Master Col Harding, living south of Quay, was brought to the Tucumcari Hospital in a most critical condition from general peritonitis complicating a neglected case of appendicitis. An operation was immediately performed in the hope of saving the patient. It is thought the patient is improving.

Rev. Wilson left the hospital Wednesday and is fast regaining strength. He will be able to conduct services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. Other services will be held as usual.

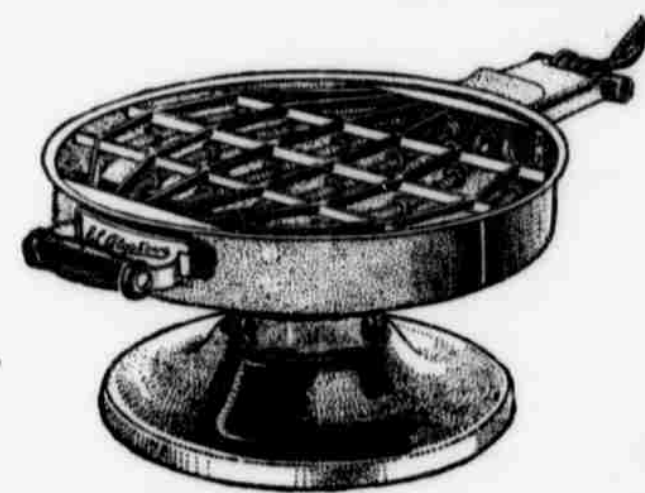

For Sale—Bed room suite, including bed clothing, two mission rockers and library table, all in good condition except wash stand. Cost 120.00 new; will sell for 45.00 cash. Inquire of Mrs. J. T. Page, corner Smith and Rock Island Sts.

C. T. Haas is prepared to do all kinds of repair work, such as upholstering and repair of broken furniture, grinding and sharpening of all kinds, soldering and brazing, all work being guaranteed. Costs nothing to ask questions, stop in and see him. Just east of the postoffice.

The Church of Christ people, or the denomination known as the anti-organ Disciples of Christ, have rented the old South Methodist Church and are now holding evangelistic services. Eld. Burnett is conducting the meetings, and it is reported that his sermons are interesting and instructive to those who wish to know about the bible.

Word was received here last week from Mrs. Dr. C. L. Stults, which stated that her husband died recently in Ft. Worth, Texas. The cause of his death was said to have been spinal meningitis. It will be remembered by many that Dr. and Mrs. Stults were residents of Tucumcari for some time and Mr. Stults was connected with the bureau of animal industry. They moved to Texas about two years ago.

Saturday is the last day of the Hotpoint week sale—your last opportunity to buy an El Glo-stovo for half price!

$2.50
—only Regularly $5.00

You want El Glo-stovo, the new electric stove---
---of course you do! Who wouldn't want a stove that will do away with the unbearable drudgery of summer kitchen work?
---El Glo-stovo does it---
---does regular family cooking from any lamp socket---
---does not require special wiring, nor special dishes---
---and does the cooking with a third to a half less current than any other electric stove costing three times as much!
---You can use it in the kitchen, dining room, breakfast room, boudoir, den, or on the porch---anywhere there is an electric light socket to attach it.
---It is always ready---just push in the switch, and it is at full working heat in 15 seconds!
---Beautifully designed, with a chafing dish body; made of pressed steel, nickled and brightly polished.
---And fully guaranteed for FIVE years!
---Surely you do want this splendid new stove---you will when you see it. And today is the time to see it, because SATURDAY is the last day you can buy it for half price---and if you don't buy now and should want one next month or later on during the summer, it will cost you the regular list price---just double what you can buy it for today!

So come early---there are only a few left---
---or phone and ask us to hold one for you.
